TO BE LETT,

AND entered upon immediately, the house in which I now live in Broad street, very commodiously situated for Trade. WILL. ELLIS.

THIS is to inform the Persons concerned, that they may save themselves the trouble of bringing to me any of their demands upon Dougal Campbell, Esq; for obtaining a dividend, because the sundry effects of his, advertised to be sold at auction, were there seized and taken on executions: And that (notwithstanding any reports to the contrary) no part of his debts or any satisfaction for the same, hath as yet been offered to John Paul Grimke.

His Majesty's most gracious SPEECH to both houses of parliament, on Thursday the 2d day of December, 1756.

My lords and gentlemen,

I HAVE called you together in a conjuncture, which highly requires the deliberation, advice and assistance of parliament; and I trust, that (under the guidance of Divine Providence) union and firmness in my affectionate people will carry me, with honour, thro' all difficulties; and finally vindicate the dignity of my crown, and its indubitable rights, against the antient enemy of their kingdoms.

The succour and preservation of America cannot but constitute a main object of my attention and solicitude; and the growing dangers, to which our colonies may stand exposed from our late losses in those parts, demand resolutions of vigour and dispatch.

An adequate and firm defence at home must have the chief place in my thoughts; and, in this great view, I have nothing so much at heart, as that no ground of dissatisfaction may remain in my people.

To this end, a national Militia, planned and regulated with equal regard to the just rights of my crown and people may, in time, become one good resource in case of general danger; and I recommend the framing of such a militia to the care and diligence of my parliament.

The unnatural union of councils abroad, the calamities, which, in consequence of this unhappy conjunction, may, by irruptions of foreign armies into the empire, shake its constitutions, overturn its system, and threaten oppression to the Protestant interest there, are events which must sensibly affect the minds of this nation, and have fixed the eyes of Europe on this dangerous crisis.

The body of my electoral troops, which I ordered hither at the desire of my parliament, I have directed to return to my dominions in Germany; relying, with pleasure, on the spirit and zeal of my people, in defence of my person and realm.

Gentlemen of the house of commons,

I will order the proper estimates to be laid, in due time, before you; and I rely on your wisdom, that you will prefer more vigorous efforts (tho' attended with large expence) to a less effectual, and therefore less frugal, plan of war.

I have placed before you the dangers and necessities of the public; it will be your care to lay, in such a manner, the burdens you may judge unavoidable, as will least distress and exhaust my people.

My lords and gentlemen,

I cannot here be unmindful of the sufferings of the poorer sort, from the present high price of corn, and the disturbances which have arisen therefrom; and I recommend to you to consider of proper provisions for preventing the like mischiefs hereafter.

Unprosperous events of war in the Mediterranean have drawn from my subjects signal proofs, how dearly they tender my honour, and that of my crown; and they cannot, on my part, fail to meet with just returns of unwearied care, and unceasing endeavours for the glory, prosperity, and happiness of my people.

WHEREAS I have ample'd the Sum of One Hundred and Twenty Thousand Pounds Currency in the Produce of this Country, besides 30,000 Pounds in Prize-Goods and other Articles, all which are paid for, as appears by my Receipt-Book, except about 3,800 Pounds Currency, 2,000 of which does not become due 'till the 22d Instant. The Remaining 1,800 Pounds I have my Objections for not paying.

NOW THIS IS TO GIVE NOTICE, to every Gentleman, Planter and Trader in this Province, who has any Demands on me, that they come and receive their Money from the 15th to the 25th Instant.

If any One should take the Liberty of contradicting the above Advertisement, or give out any other malicious Insinuation, in order to prejudice me in the good Opinion of those I have dealt with, I shall esteem it one of the greatest Favours done to me, to let me know the same by a Line, and their Names shall be concealed: And if such Information comes from a Person in midling Circumstances, on due Proof thereof, I do hereby promise to reward him with the Sum of Five Hundred Pounds Currency.

I return my Thanks to those Gentlemen who assisted me in taking my Bills for 12,000 Pounds Sterling; and to the Planters of Winyah, and those of the Southward, for giving me the Preference of their Indico. And do hereby assure them, that (if it please God I live 'till the next Season) I will not let their Fine Indico fall under 20 Shillings per Pound, having all the Reason to believe I shall have 200,000 Pounds Currency to lay out the ensuing Year in that Article; wherefore I hope they will not be discouraged. MOSES LINDO.

CHARLES-TOWN, March 3

AS we have had but One of His Majesty's Ships stationed here at a Time, since the present War began; and all the Men of War now in these Parts, are ordered to repair to Halifax by a certain Day; we hear, that Two Vessels of Force will soon be fitted out, to protect our Trade and guard our Coasts, either by the Government, or by Subscription of the Merchants: And, that the Subscription some Time since set on Foot, for fitting out a Privateer or Guarda Costa by every County in this Province, is again revived, and will be carried on with Spirit —— Some Time ago, there was a Talk of two Gallies designed to be built, but no more is at present said upon that Subject.

We do not yet hear of any English Men of War cruizing off Mississippi: But, we hear of a great Number of French Transport ships going thither with Troops, &c.

On Monday last arrived here, the Sloop Charming Betty, of and from Rhode Island, Benjamin Church Master, clear'd for the Musquito Shore IN BALLAST; but being met with near Cape Nicholas, on the 13th ult. by His Majesty's Snow Jamaica, and a considerable Quantity of Gun-powder, Muskets, &c. found on board, (supposed to be designed for the French) was seiz'd and sent in here by Capt. Thompson; who, on the 15th, was left in Chase of a Ship, a Snow, and a Brig lying at Anchor near Cape François, of which we hope soon to give a better Account, as he had got between them and the Land and a great Firing was heard that Night about 8 o'Clock.

By the Vessels arrived this Week from Barbados, we learn, that the French Privateers from Martinique, Guadaloupe, &c. seem to be kept in a little Awe, by the Men of War, and the great Number of North American Privateers that are now cruizing about those Islands: That the Pinfold Privateer, Capt. Cook, of Barbados, had lately carried in there a French Snow of 8 Guns with 100 Men, from Bourdeaux; the surprize Man of War, a Ship of 18 Guns and 60 Men, from the same Port; and the Hercules Privateer, Capt. Bayard of New York, a French Privateer of 8 Carriage Guns: And, that the French Privateer Schooner lately went to St. Bartholomew's, not knowing the Island was in the Hands of the English, and was taken by our Privateers there.

Capt. Stuart, from Jamaica, informs us, that at the Time of his leaving that Island, Admiral Townshend's whole Squadron was upon a Cruize in and about the Windward-Passage; except the Edinburgh, of 74 Guns, which had lately come thither, and on board of which he had hoisted his Flag.

The French Privateer Schooner, that some Time ago took the Snow Loudoun, of and from Irvine for this Port, David Jaffrie Master, and gave her to the said Jaffrie and 18 other English Prisoners, (after plundering her of all the Cargo but Coals, and stripping her of a great Part of her Sails and Rigging, so that she with great Difficulty got into Bermuda), was fitted out from and belonged to Louisbourg, called La Victoire, commanded by Monsr. Simonin, and mounted 8 Carriage and 10 Swivel Guns. Before she met with the Loudoun, she had taken 7 other English Vessels upon this Coast, and intended to cruize here again; wherefore Simonin gave Jaffrie a Pass to go to Virginia, and charged him at his Peril not to come this Way. —This Intelligence is given, that our Coasters may avoid Schooners of her Size.

Yesterday arrived here Capt. Campbell, and To day Capt Smith, both from Philadelphia, who with great Difficulty got down the River, thro' the Ice. They bring no other News, than of the Arrival there of 5 of the Transports from Cork, one of which had been taken near Bermuda, on the 26th of December last, by the Zephyr, a French Frigate of 36 Guns, and ransomed; but the Frigates first took out about 80 of the Soldiers that were on board. An

An Express is just arrived from Fort Loudoun, at Tennessee, with an Account of the safe Arrival of Lt. Gray and the Reinforcement lately sent thither; and that all is well and quiet in the Cherokee Nation.

NEW-YORK, January 31.

Extract of a Letter from Albany, dated the 26th Inst. which came by an Express last Saturday Night.

LETTERS just received from Fort George at the Carrying place, assure, that capt. Rogers having gone out on a scout, with 80 men, about 2 weeks ago, and having good intelligence, way laid, between Crown Point and Ticonderoga, 60 sleighs with provisions for the latter place; 59 of which he took and destroyed, taking 7 prisoners and 18 scalps: The odd sleigh escaping alarmed the garison at Crown-Point; when a great number, thought to be 300 regulars, were ordered out in search of Rogers and his party. Rogers, as soon as they appeared, engaged them with great resolution for some time, when having near 20 of his men killed, and himself wounded through the wrist of his left hand, he thought it prudent to retreat, and came in safe to fort George. The French firing in platoons, captain Rogers thinks many were killed, as they were backward in following him and his men good marksmen."

Saturday last was sent in here, by the Capts. Randle and Harris, in the privateer sloops Golerich and Charming Sally, of this port, a sloop of war in the service of the French king, called l'Aigle au Cap, Mr. Ferrit late commander, mounting 12 six pounders, 18 swivels, 2 cohorns, and 6 brass blunderbusses, with 130 men; said to be one of the 2 Bermuda sloops built and fitted out by some of the good people of Philadelphia, for the French king, to cruize off Hispaniola in quest of guarda costas. She had been out of port 18 days, and had taken the brig. Severn, capt. Apowell, of Philadelphia, and the sloop Delight, capt. Dan. Seymour, from New York, both bound for Jamaica; the latter of which was retaken by the above privateers, and proceeded on her voyage.

Philadelphia, Feb 3. Since our last the captains Simpson, and Woodhouse, and a vessel lately commanded by captain Neale (but came in under the command of captain Pell of New-York) arrived here from Cork. This last vessel on her passage left her fore and main masts, and was afterwards (on the 26th of December) taken by a French frigate, of 26 guns, called the Zephyr, bound to Rochfort from Martinico, but ransomed for 500 pounds by captain Pell (Neale refusing to do it) whose vessel, the privateer brig Mary of New York had been taken 6 days before by the same frigate near Bermuda, and whose lieutenant is gone home in the Frenchman as a hostage.
